Office of Financial Aid Information Needed to Complete the FAFSA Dependent Students

In order to complete the FAFSA, you will need to bring information for the parent(s) and the student. If your parents are divorced or separated, bring the information below for the parent you have lived with the most in the last 12 months. If that parent has remarried, bring information for the step-parent as well.

Do not bring information on a grandparent, aunt, or anyone other than a parent unless you have been legally adopted (even if someone else claims you on the federal tax return).

Checklist for what to bring to complete your FAFSA:

- Parent's FSA ID created for themselves or another child
- Parent(s) and student's legal names (as on birth certificate and social security cards)
- Parent(s) and student's Social Security numbers
- Parent(s) and student's dates of birth
- Parent's driver's license numbers
- Email address for student and parent – you must create one if you do not have one
- Access to cell phones for parent and student to verify phone number via text
- Info for parents with whom you live: marriage date, divorce date, or separation date
- If you are in a legal guardianship, bring court papers for the guardianship.
- W-2 forms and other records of money earned in 2018 (student and parents)
- 2018 Federal Income Tax Return (the 1040 form for student and parents) – If your parents or parent and step-parent file separately, bring copies of both tax returns.
- Value of bank accounts and investments
